

I am concerned that I will lose my ability to hear KLOVE on my local translator if the LPFM stations are allowed priority. KLOVE is the only station in my area playing contemporary Christian music. In fact, the entire state of North Dakota could be affected. I support KLOVE financially because it plays wholesome, encouraging, positive music. This is in stark contrast to the commercial stations.